

At Long Last

It's honestly been almost 10 years since there has been a picture of us together that I loved as much as I love this one. Things I normally might not like about myself are totally forgiven in light of the fact that we are BOTH really smiling, and look nice, and look happy and not annoyed. Isn't he so handsome. =) Ok - I know, more wedding pics to come, I just had to share. The previous "awesome" picture was when we had been dating for about 6 months. =)

Thanks Liz! I think you took this one!*
