

I really do talk with my hands a lot.

I don't exactly know how to introduce this. It's me. In a video.

Cue the self-deprecating humor....

...I really can just keep talking. Five minutes? Really?

...I am the tangent Queen.

...I look like I'm trying to flag someone down with those hands. I'm like a hummingbird or something.

...At least I managed to look at the actual camera most of the time, and the, um, um, ums weren't THAT bad.

...I will try to get the volume thing fixed. Quiet is great for the screams, bad for the normal talk.
